A TILDEN campaign club has been formed in Philadelphia.

FATHER HYACINTHE will soon start on a lecturing tour in this country.

Two deaths from small-pox have occurred at the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home at Louisville.

The Synod of Kentucky which has just closed its sessions in Danville, resolved to put three new Evangelists in the field at once and for that purpose resolved to raise $3,500.

The word "obey" having been stricken from the marriage service by a Methodist congregation in Canada, it might serve to indicate that a woman's rights convention had been held there recently.

The taxable valuation of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee and Texas has increased $500,000,000 since 1879, and the tax rate has decreased in nearly every state.

The Cincinnati Southern Railroad has bought ground at Lexington, on which it is proposed to put up machine shops, provided sufficient water can be had from a spring on the land bought. A test of its capacity is to be made immediately.

The October corn report for the Department of Agriculture fully sustains the telegraphic summary relative to injuries by frosts. The potato crop is in better condition than in any year since 1875, but the tobacco crop will, it is said, be below an average in yield.

If "labor agitators" would not "agitate" quite so much, and go to work, they would stand a better chance of becoming millionaires. Jay Gould was once a poor man, but instead of keeping up the howl "down with monopolists," he went to work and became one of those things himself.

It is understood that the Civil Service Commission has asked the President to direct a further classification of the employees in the Government service, so as to bring within the operation of the Civil Service rules the class of employees receiving less than $800 per annum. The president is believed to favor the proposition.

Prohibition received another "boost" the other day in Minnesota. A conference of Methodist ministers resolved that "the time had come for all friends of prohibition to cast their ballots for only such parties and candidates as are unequivocally committed to the utter extermination of the liquor traffic by the power of the law." The newspapers of that State say that the action will be supported by the ministry of other denominations.

A WASHINGTON despatch to the Louisville Post says: The Kentucky Republicans will have several plums to scramble for during the next session of Congress. Five Presidential postoffices, whose salary amounts to over $12,000 a year, will become vacant between December and May next. The offices are at Lexington, Paducah, Henderson, Owensboro and Winchester. The term of the Henderson postmaster expires December 15th, that of Owensboro and Winchester in January, Paducah on February, 5th, and Lexington on March 17th.

An executive order, announcing the retirement of General Sherman from active duty November 1st, and the changes incident thereto, is in course of preparation at Washington. It is understood that Major General Hancock will succeed Lieut. General Sheridan, in command of the Division of the Missouri, that Major General Pope will succeed Gen. Hancock in command of the Division of the East, and that Major General Schofield will remain in command of the Division of the Pacific. General Hancock was tendered Lieut. General Sheridan's command, and is understood to have accepted it.

Kentucky Estray Law.

A great many persons do not know that the law requires them to post all strays taken up, and as a result considerable trouble grows out of the matter. For the benefit of the uninformed we publish below sections three and seven of chapter one hundred and ninety-three of the general statutes relating to strays. They read as follows:

Sec. 3.—The taker up shall, within one month after he has posted the stray, cause to be published for one month or by four weeks' insertions, a copy of the justice's certificate in a newspaper, if one be published in the county.

Sec. 7.—If any persons shall violate the provisions of this chapter, or fail or refuse to comply with any of its provisions, he shall forfeit and pay ten dollars for each offense.

Men, Women and Things.

"Ouida's" library is said to contain half a million volumes.

Mary Anderson's English audiences are reported to be growing.

When the Japanese say "Ohio," they mean "How do you do?"

Portraits of all the Presidents except Buchanan are now in the White House.

The Marquis de Lorne has sent two buffaloes to Scotland for breeding purposes.

Assistant Postmaster General Hutton declares that civil service reform is a fraud.

It is estimated that education costs an average of about fourteen dollars per capita in New England.

There is an immense demand for portraits of Mary Anderson in London, and the photographers are reaping a harvest.

Robinson, the anything-to-beat Butler candidate in Massachusetts, has engaged rooms at the Riggs House, Washington, for the winter.

Ten cotton factories and nine gold mines are in operation within a radius of thirty miles of Charlotte, N. C. The cotton factories yield the most gold.

Henry Irving says he is astounded at the immense sale of tickets which has taken place for his coming performances in America. He now expects that his financial success will be gigantic, even should he not obtain an artistic triumph.

In the college of the propaganda, at Rome, there are always colored students preparing for the priesthood. There are no colored priests in the United States, although a colored man from this country is being educated at Rome. He will be the first Catholic priest in America.

The South.

The cotton compress at Macon, Ga., has been completed.

Newman, Ga., is endeavoring to raise money enough for a cotton factory.
